"WOMEN AND ORDINATION IN TIBETAN BUDDHISM"
HAGGERTY ART MUSEUM, LOWER GALLERIES, 4:30 – 6 PM

Quote from Ven Chodron

"The existence of full ordination for women is not a feminist issue. It concerns the preservation and spread of the Dharma. It is about individuals having the possibility to progress on the path to enlightenment by means of living in full precepts. It enables lay practitioners and society in general to reap the benefits of having educated and confident bhikshunis in their midst."
