CONNECTING ON CAMPUS

It's easy to feel a bit disconnected from campus this year. If you're looking for some ways to get involved, check out these events:

SCULPTING YOUR IGNATIAN B.U.T., Sunday, Feb. 21, 3 pm

- Join Dr. Derrick Witherington at Gesu Chapel for a spiritual meditation on "The Spirituality of Sacred Architecture"

"A LAND CALLED CRETE: FROM HARRIET BOYD HAWES TO THE CRETAN COLLECTIONS PROJECT" Feb. 21, 3-4:30 pm

- Virtual lecture by Andrew J. Koh, senior research fellow at MIT Center for Materials Research in Archeology and Ethnology.

2021 BREWED IDEAS CHALLENGE, Due March 1

- The 707 Hub and Brady Corporation sponsor this MU version of Shark Tank, where students can present their innovative business and social ideas. Compete for seed money to help bring your plan into action.

LOOKING GOOD, MARQUETTE: ART & WRITING FOR MENTAL HEALTH

- The Haggerty and the Ott Memorial Writing Center are teaming up to offer a unique way to decompress and reflect during the Spring semester mental health days. Visit the Haggerty online or in person to find selected artworks and paired writing prompts.

HONORS SPOTLIGHT

CURIOSITY, DIALOGUE, AND EXPLORING DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES

The UHP is committed to fostering students' curiosity, promoting dialogue, and encouraging the exploration of multiple and diverse experiences and perspectives. Here are some opportunities to do that.

FILM SCREENING: "CODED BIAS"

- Marquette is providing free access throughout the month of February to this 2020 documentary based on MIT Media Lab researcher Joy Buolamwini's work on racial bias in facial recognition software. MU will host a follow-up discussion of the film with COSC and REIS professors in March. More details to come.

FILM SCREENING: "STOLEN BABIES OF SPAIN," Feb. 22, 4-8 pm

- The Center for the Advancement of the Humanities, Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, and the Diederich College of Communication host this screening of a documentary highlighting the transatlantic struggle for justice on behalf of children stolen from maternity hospitals under Franco's reign.
- A panel of interdisciplinary MU experts will hold a discussion prior to the film, and a Q&A will follow.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

'TRANSCRIBE-A-THON', Feb. 23-25

- Students are invited to help digitize historical documents--deciphering and transcribing the works of Mary Church Terrell, an African American educator who championed Civil Rights and women's suffrage in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
- No experience necessary, and students are welcome to drop into the virtual event. Click here for more details.
